

What is “United Way Days of Caring”?

“United Way Days of Caring” is a two-day event with hundreds of volunteers from local companies, businesses and organizations. During Days of Caring, volunteers make a difference at agencies, schools, and in the lives of students and clients by completing much needed projects.

April 22 & 23, 2010

Why should our company or organization get involved?

Studies show that the benefits for company volunteer involvement includes a bolstering of team spirit among participating employees, increased company morale, exposure in the community, and a greater understanding of how commitment of time and money makes a difference. United Way Days of Caring takes place during National Volunteer Week April 18-24. What a great way to recognize volunteers.

What kinds of projects are offered?

United Way Days of Caring offers many different projects including; landscaping, painting, cleaning, clerical work, construction, working with children, and helping the elderly.

How do we get involved?

It is easy! Appoint a team leader. This person will be the liaison with the United Way, supplying information to their team, completing necessary forms, receiving assignments, and working out details between the agency project coordinator and small-team coordinators. Have your team leader submit the enclosed interest sheet to the United Way to confirm your participation.
